

Notice of Postponement of 2022 DnA SHENZHEN

Considering the current epidemic prevention and control of Shenzhen Municipality is still severely ongoing, in order to guarantee the health and life safety of exhibitors, visitors and participants, we regret to announce that the 2nd DnA SHENZHEN Design and Art Fair, originally scheduled from September 15-18, 2022 at the Shenzhen Museum of Contemporary Art and Urban Planning, will be suspended after prudent consideration. Subsequent arrangements will be announced subject to availability.

We were greatly encouraged by the successful conclusion of the 1st DnA SHENZHEN Design and Art Fair. In this special period, we have to suspend the 2nd fair with deeply regret, and we sincerely appreciate your support and trust. Since its inception, DnA SHENZHEN Design and Art Fair has focused on the innovative expression of urban culture, bringing international high-quality pioneering home design and outlining a vivid urban living scenario for the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area.

In the future, DnA SHENZHEN will grow together with art and design to shape art philosophy and blend art power.
